ENGLAND IS AGOG OVER QUAEREL OF BETWEEN LEADERS

Lloyd George and Sir George Younger at Loggerheads

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Nov. 1—There was no development today in the quarrel between Mr. Lloyd George and Sir George Younger, and political circles are agog to learn the upshot of the strange situation. Curiosity is increased by the fact that Mr. Lloyd George alone of all the party leaders has not issued any election advices. Meantime he is confined to his house with a cold. His condition was improved tonight and he appears confident he will be able to speak in London Saturday.

If Lloyd George still intends to carry out his threats to run his own candidates against the conservatives he must hasten his decision because no additional candidates can be nominated after Saturday. Despite persistent official denials there is little doubt that underground negotiations are afoot.

Premier Bonar Law is credited with becoming resentful over the personal attacks on his ministerial coleagues and with intending to hit back vigorously basing his position on the ground that Lloyd George has been rejected by all parties and is banking on personal popularity.

In a letter addressed to the British legion of former service men the premier explains his attitude with regard to the pensions ministry reiterating that nothing is contemplated against the interests of the pensioners.

Election oratory is again in full flood and is notable for bitter personalities especially between the supporters of Lloyd George and those of Sir George Younger. Lord Birkenhead declared in a speech today that it is Younger's intention to leave Lloyd George helpless in the new parliament. New candidates are being nominated daily and there are now nearly 1400 nominations. A striking feature is the large number of professional men standing under the labor banner. These include several well known barristers and authors.

The Earl of Balfour spoke tonight in Edinburgh, taking the line that the conservatives and national liberals were menaced by a common danger and he asked whether their forces were so overwhelming that they could afford to divide them in a manner the merest tyro in politics would declare insane.

Where there are such advantages in the moderate plan of all parties working together, he said, it seemed sheer lunacy to throw away the opportunity of cooperation so fruitful in the past by a hazardous experiment, unjustifiable by argument and defenseless at the bar of reason.

So far as he was able to judge the labor party would make itself felt at the coming election. If it came into power he thought it would be disastrous for the country and those who would immediately and profoundly suffer would be the wage earning classes.

DOG'S TAIL INVOLVED IN $10,000 LAW SUIT

(By The Associated Press)

Satisfaction with the verdict and sentence were expressed by Padrick as he was led from the court room by Sheriff Joe Tillman, to begin his term of life imprisonment. "I will not appeal," he said, "I am well satisfied with the verdict."

Padrick was placed on trial Monday for the confessed slaying of his mother-in-law who was found dead in an automobile on the road between Clito and Dover on the afternoon of June 19. His wife also was in the machine suffering from wounds from which she died within a short time.

He was taken to the Richmond county jail at Augusta because of fear of violence.

Padrick declared he had no fear of an earthly court, that God could be his judge; that he had directed his hand in the killing of his wife and mother-in-law.

Appearing before the jury in his own defense at the trial, Padrick began his testimony offering prayer in which he asked that the jury join and followed with a brief sermon from the text "Thou Shalt Not Commit Adultery."

In his speech to the jury, he condemned modern tendencies and dress of women which he claimed led to sex appeal that caused the downfall of young men and women.

RETAILERS WHO CUT PRICES ARE REFUSED GOODS

Alleged That Wholesale Tobacco Dealers Punished Retailers

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 1—Punishment of retail tobacco dealers who reduced prices beneath the standard set by the wholesale tobacco dealers' association of Philadelphia was alleged against the organization by the government today in the continuation of the federal trade committee's inquiry into charges that the association, the American Tobacco company and P. Lorillard company were hindering and suppressing competition.

After the asociation fixed a set of prices, the government charged it sent "spies" to report price cutting and those who reduced were refused new stocks by the tobacco companies. New supplies were withheld the government contended until the offender promised to abide by the price list.

George W. Hill, vice-president of the American Tobacco company admitted writing a circular quoting the prices circulated by his company and explained there were two classes of dealers detrimental to the tobacco business. One, he said, is the small dealer who holds stock so long that it becomes stale and the other is the tobacconist who cuts rates to induce customers in his store demoralizing prices.

KAISER'S DAUGHTER ARRIVES IN DOORN TO ATTEND WEDDING

Accompanied by Suite and Pastor Vogel Who Will Officiate

(By The Associated Press)

DOORN, Holland, Nov. 1.—The Duchess of Brunswick, daughter of former Emperor William of Germany, accompanied by her suite and pastor, Vogel of Potsdam, arrived in Doorn this evening. They left the train bringing them from Germany at Maarn, where William first arrived in Holland to begin his exile. Pastor Vogel is to celebrate the religious ceremony when Princess Hermine of Ruess and William are mafried.

Count von Moltke, who fills the office of "marshal" of William's tiny court, curtly refused today to give any information regarding the arrangements for the wedding. That certain discrimination is to be exercised seems to have been shown by the fact that George Sylvester Viereck, well known as German-American publicist arrived here a few days ago and dined with William at the former emperor's special invitation. The Dutch authorities are equally as secretive as the members of William's entourage.

There are a number of rumors afloat which it has been impossible to verify. Included among them is one to the effect that Princess Hermine has not left Doorn castle since her arrival there and will leave only for the sake of appearance next Saturday, returning on Sunday for the wedding. It has been learned that former Crown Prince Frederick William will arrive tomorrow at noon.

The former emperor distributes his orders for the day in the morning and insists on them being carried out to the letter. The work imposed by him has been exceedingly heavy day and night and the castle staff is worn out.

LESS THAN HALF OF CANDIDATES FILE STATEMENTS

Senatorial Candidates Slow About Filing Expense Bills

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1—While less than one half of the candidates for the senate have filed campaign expense statements, according to the count made today by clerks, candidates for the house are still sending their reports at the rate of almost 200 a day. In the midst of the confusion as to provisions of the law, the one fact that stands out clearly is that house candidates must file now and after the election.

The view was expressed by some senate officials that many candidates for that branch might accept the interpretation of the supreme court decision in the Newberry case by Attorney General Daugherty that they were not required to file. In a letter last year to Representative Luce, Republican, Mass., the attorney general answering a specific inquiry as to the effect of the Newberry decision said:

"As United States senators are not now elected by legislatures of the states as contemplated in the act, it is my opinion that this fact in connection with the holding in the Newberry decision makes it unnecessary for a candidate for United States senator to file any statement whatever in connection with his nomination or election."

Mr. Daugherty contended that the only provision of the election law now in force and effect is the one which requires such statements to be filed in connection with the election of candidates for the house.

Most of the reports on file with the senate have not been brought up to date many relating to primary expenses.

GOVERNMNT IS COLLECTING MANY MILLIONS MONTHLY

Comes Thru Liquidating of Pending Claims and Back Taxes

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Millions of dollars a month are being collected by the government thru the liquidation of pending tax claims and the payment of back taxes, revenue officials said today. Outstanding claims, officials said, have been reduced by about 50 per cent during the past year which means a return to the government of many millions of dollars. About a year ago there were some 168,000 unsettled claims which at the present date have been reduced to about 91,000 including the several hundred claims which come in daily The revenue bureau is confident that by spring the number of outstanding claims will be reduced to the point that none of them will be interest bearing when finally adjusted.

Secretary Mellon and Revenue Commissioner Blair have expressed satisfaction with the progress being made by the revenue bureau.

VETERAN OF RING LOSES TITLE TO MICKEY WALKER

Jack Britton Decisively Defeated by 20 Years Old Youngster

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Age and its wisdom fell before youth and its crushing determination when Jack Britton, nearing the 40 mark, and the oldest living man to hold a world's boxing championship title, surrendered to Mickey Walker of Elizabeth, N. J., after 15 rounds of gruelling boxing in Madison Square Garden tonight.

After 20 years in the ring, Britton, the sage and crafty master of defense, twice the holder of the crown that toppled tonight, was a poor match for the aggressive Jerseyman who displayed more than the ordinary knowledge of the science of fisticuffs. Walker won all the way.

Thruout the latter half of the battle Britton was on the verge of a knockout. It was not his iron sides and steel jaw that averted that fate, but his stock of gray matter which no matter how hard the punishment was able to function.

There was something odd about the fight that was not satisfactorily explained to the crowd. When the contestants entered the ring it was announced on behalf of the New York boxing commission and Promoter Rickard that "all bets were off." This afternoon wagers were laid at 6 to 5 on Britton, but when the preliminaries began tonight the long end had been transferred to Walker. He was made favorite at 8 to 5. Despite this unusual incident the crowd seemed to believe in the contest. They howled as they watched the 21 year old fighter pummel Britton, they held their breath when they saw the crown slipping off the head of the weakening champion any they applauded as each of the closing rounds ended, with Britton tho reeling still on the safe side of a knockout.

Britton went to his knees nearly half a dozen times, first in the second round. After a demoralizing third, he appeared strong in the fourth and fifth and then grew appreciably weaker. He made desperate efforts for a knockout in the ninth, again when most helpless in the tenth and in the eleventh made a flash that startled the ringside.

But after the spurt he had nothing left but his gameness. In the semi-final Sailor Friedman of Chicago knocked out Eddie Fitzsimmons of Yonkers in the sixth round of what was to have been a 12 round bout. The winner's weight was 146, eight pounds more than his opponent.

The interview was planned by Mrs. Hall's counsel so that she might seek to extricate herself in the public eye from the circumstantial net in which the unfolding of the Hall-Mills murder mystery has enmeshed her.

At the end of the interview she retired as she had entered the room, very composed.

PIATT COUNTY MURDER CASE ON TRIAL

Dr. F. P. Norbury Appeared as Medical Expert and Advisor for the Prosecution.

Dr. Frank P. Norbury has returned from Monticello where he appeared as medical expert and advisor, to the state's attorney of Piatt county, in the prosecution of Opal Arthur for the alleged murder of Chares Martin. The defense is insanity. Dr. William O. Krohn of Chicago, appeared as the expert on behalf of the defense. The case has been on trial for the past four weeks and this was Dr. Norbury's third visit to Monticello.

This murder was one of the most cold-blooded ever known in Illinois. It is charged that Arthur who was a former marine and about twentyinine years old, deliberately shot Martin after luring him to a farm home where he was employed. The evidence tends to show that Arthur shot his victim thru the head and then when the wounded man sought refuge in a barn followed him there, shot him again and subsequently crushed his head with a blunt instrument.

The evidence further indicates that the dead body was then loaded into a car and that Arthur wired it to a stone lintel and then cast his burden from a bridge into the Sangamon river.

GENERAL MURGUIA NOTED REBEL IS SHOT IN MEXICO

Faces Firing Squad at Tepehauntee, Durango Wednesday

(By The Associated Press)

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 1.—General Francisco Murguia, the rebel leader, was executed by a firing squad at 9 o'clock this morning at Tepehauntes, Durango, after a brief court martial last night it was announced today from the presidential offices. Murguia, the announcement said met death calmly.

Surprised by federal forces while asleep in a tiny room behind the high altar of the Catholic church at Tepehunntes last night, Murguia, a former follower of Pres.dent Carranza, and one of the most persistent of President Obregon's enemies, was given a hasty court martial and sentenced to pay the penalty of death.

This morning he was led over a hill and in the presence of the native population was shot by a detail of men.

According to reports Murguia for the past few weeks had virtually been a fugitive. Following the dispersal of his rebel band at Guarache, Duranga and with less than a dozen adherents remaining with him, he had been living the life of a hunted man. He was definitely located yesterday morning at Tepehauntes when an Indian maiden friendly to the federals slipped into the federal camp and divulged his hiding place to General Abraham Carmona who immediately surrounded the village. Carmona was told by the girl that Murguia was being sheltered by the village curate, Father Cassares and soldiers silently took possession of the church last night when the priest was saying his office.

Murguia was asleep. He betrayed no emotion when informed that he was under arrest. Followed by excited crowds, he was conducted to military headquarters where a court martial was hastily formed. Murguia is declared in the official reports to have offered little defense.

Receives Verdict Calmly.

The general received the verdict of th court calmly. Afterward he requested writing material and is understood to have passed the night writing letters to his wife and friends. This morning the firing squad was assembled and in the presence of the entire population of Tepehauntes Murguia met death. He declined to have his face covered and gave orders to his executioners.

The body is being held in Tepehauntes. It probably will be buried there.

In the death of Murguia the most active of all of President Obregon's enemies is removed. For months he had conducted an organized campaign against the central government from across the international boundary.

President Obregon was reported by the newspapers as having said that he had directed that when Murguia was run down he should be brought to the capital.

The fact that this was not done caused the circulation of a rumor in some quarters that perhaps there had been a case of mistaken identity at Tepehauntes and that Murguia was still at large, altho the official reports of the execution received from federal officers on the scene indicate that such a mistake was impossible.

A THOUGHT

And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance forever. — Isaiah 32:17.

Sometimes the things our life misses help more than the things which it gets.—Alice Cary.

MR. RIGGS' GOOD RECORD.

George L. Riggs during a four year period has manifested his ability to handle the important affairs of the county clerk's office in a competent way. It is therefore Mr. Riggs' good fortune to be able to come before the people and stand upon his record. Those who have had business with the office can testify that the records of the county are continually kept in proper shape, and furthermore that courteous service is extended to all.

It has been Mr. Riggs' ideal to realize that the county clerk's office belongs to the people of Morgan county and he has consistently tried to manage the office in the interest of the people.

A GOOD EXAMPLE FROM OMAHA.

Omaha has set a good example in courtesy to visiting motorists. Parking laws are made flexible when it comes to visitors altho applied strictly to the home people. The Illinois Journal of Commerce comments on the Omaha plan as follows:

Omaha Sets Good example.

The Chamber of Commerce of Omaha has done what the merchants of this city as well as out-of-town shoppers call a good stroke of business.

There is an Omaha ordinance against parking for more than half an hour in certain sections. This ordinance was never meant to apply to out-of-town cars, but this was not generally known, and visitors suffered much annoyance. Recently the bureau of publicity of the chamber had printed cards announcing:

"This card enables you to park your car as long as you please while in Omaha. Never mind the limit. Omaha welcomes you and hopes you will return often."

These cards are placed in every out-of-town car which parks in Omaha. Almost immediately responses began to come in from visitors, of which this, from a man in Fort Crook, is typical:

"I wish to congratulate you on this new order. It will mean a great deal to us farmers as well as to the Omaha merchants. Many a dollar I have sent to mail order houses owing to the inconvenience caused by the half-hour parking order."

That seems a good example for Illinois cities if any of them have parking ordinances which are driving trade away from the merchants.

THE WOES THAT COME WITH POSSESSIONS.

It is unusual for a financial magazine to take just this view of money matters and therefore these paragraphs from B. C. Forbes in his own magazine have the greater interest:

My little boys have just suffered a terrible tragedy: This morning they came rushing to me crying almost hysterically. During the night dogs had broken into their rabbit house and killed their pets. The little fellows were inconsolable. They assured me that they had locked them up carefully the previous night—which I knew was so because I happened to have inspected the place. Their grief probably was intensified because I had told them if they showed they could look after rabbits properly, I would feel they were fit to have a pony.

What this little boyhood tragedy has brought home to my mind is that possessions bring their responsibilities and, oftentimes woes. Very small children have few possessions and worry little over them. As they grow up we reach out for more and more things. As men, many of us succumb to the temptation to make the accumulation of possessions our main aim and end in life. The more we acquire, the more interests we pile up, the heavier becomes our burden of responsibilities. The more we have, the greater the room for disappointments, for things going wrong.

How wise we would be to look upon material possession strictly as a means to an end, as a means to the fullest possible development of our better selves, our spiritual growth, our good will towards our fellowmen, our human impulses! Regarding and utilizing our possessions in this way, would we not greatly reduce the dangers and the woes attaching to many possessions, and that subtle, spiritual poison, pride of possessions.

MR. BLACK IS QUALIFIED.

Charles S. Black, who is a candidate for sheriff, makes no secret of the fact that he is a firm believer in law enforcement. He had always been aligned with the men and women who believe in dry measures and has never had reason to change his point of view. In fact, Mr. Black has always been open in his support of all measures which he has felt are for the public good.

If elected to the office of sheriff it will be his constant endeavor to aid in the enforcement of law and he can be counted upon to co-operate to the fullest extent with the state's attorney's office. By virtue of his office in this county the sheriff is also the collector of taxes and vast sums of money pass thru the sheriff's office.

Mr. Black is a man who can safely be trusted to meet the responsibilities of this office.

THE SOLDIERS' BONUS BILL.

One of the questions of public policy to be submitted at an election next Tuesday is that of approving bonds for the payment of a soldiers' bonus in this state. The proposal is that a $55,000,000 bond issue shall be authorized in order to make possible adjusted compensation for ex-service men.

In order to become a law it will be necessary for the measure to receive a majority of all votes cast in the election. In this particular instance it is different from some other proposals for which only a majority of votes cast upon that particular question are required.

The bonus proposal is a part of the state platform of the Republican party and should have favorable consideration at the polls. The bond issue will run thru a long period of time and the tax burden will be light.

Service men left business or positions with good salaries attached when they entered the service and while money cannot fully compensate them for the service rendered, it will help in that regard.

TUBERCULOSIS BOARD MAKES STATEMENT

Morgan county has reason for pride in Oak Lawn sanatorium. The institution is now giving treatment and care to fifteen or sixteen Morgan county people and to twelve ex-service men. Those who are qualified to know can testify that excellent service is being rendered and that the patients are receiving intelligent care that is restoring them to health and strength.

Altho practicing all possible economy, the tuberculosis board cannot operate the sanatorium successfully with the funds secured from the government and available thru the county board from general taxation.

It is for this reason that the tuberculosis board urged the board of county commissioners to levy a specal tax of not to exceed one mill for the maintenance of the sanatorium. If this tax is approved at the election the county board can levy such a tax for a period of five years. It is understood to be the intention of the board to levy a tax not in excess of three-fourths of a mill which would raise a special fund of about $17,500.

This money, together with the other available, would make it possible to maintain the sanatorium on an efficient basis and we are confident it would be possible in the course of the five years to pay off the mortgage debt of $12,000 which is now in force.

We urge that the people vote in favor of this small additional tax and gives assurance that the money entrusted to this board will be economically spent.

Lester A. Reed, president of the association called the meeting to order and the financial statement of the recent fair was presented. A number of matters pertaining to the future of the fair were discussed informally.

Among the matters discussed was the changing of the bylaws and constitution of the association. The question of reorganization and the selling of stock instead of maintaining the association by subscription as at present also was considered. The secretary was instructed to notify the 260 members of the organization of the adjourned meeting to be held Nov. 19. The election of officers as well as the selecting of four directors to succeed those whose terms expire at this time will be an important part of this meeting.

SOCIOLOGIST WILL LECTURE HERE NOV. 4

Prof. Edward Ross of University Of Wisconsin Faculty to Address A. A. U. Saturday Afternoon—Some Comment.

Prof. Edward Ross, who is to lecture at the meeting of the A. A. U. Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, is not only a professor of sociology in the University of Wisconsin, but also an author of note and authority. His latest book is "The Social Trend."

The October Century has the following about him: "A sociological thinker at once fearless and reasonable is Prof. Edward Allsworth Ross, author of "Principles of Sociology," "Changing America," and other books of sociology and history.

He has something to say in his new book about the infelicities of our society—but he says it to all of us, not giving to a particular class or labelling these imperfections grievances. One of the interesting ideas he has is the need of a new ideal of success and a new ideal of social service."

The following brief quotation from "The Social Trend" gives an idea of his fearless thinking and his popular style: "this whole conception of business as a jungle fight, with its implied admiration of the money-maker as a wonderfully powerful and clever fellow, its thinly veiled contempt for a man who wins only a livelihood, its cool ignoring of the public for whose sake business exists, belongs in a class with trial by ordeal.

The social service that is supreme is not some bit of charitable work, but the following of one's calling as service not as exploit. Education for social service is to open the eyes of the young to the social nature of their work in life, to purge their minds of a current false notion that to enter one's life work is to take a hand in a poker game or put on the gloves for a prize fight."

The A. A. U. W. is giving the people of Jacksonville an opportunity to hear Dr. Ross. His lecture on "Woman In a Man Made World" is sure to be original and delightful.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE

Edward Keating, administrator of the estate of Kate Ryan, will sell lots 16 and 17, Mathers & VanWinkle's addition to the city of Jacksonville at the south door of the court house Saturday, November 11 at 2 p. m.

A WRONG IMPRESSION

(Editorial Jacksonville Courier)

It has been called to the attention of the Courier that at various times special credit has been given to the present county clerk for reducing taxes by a process known as the Juul law. In two instances it has been stated that the present county clerk was the only one who has followed this law.

This statement was in error, for C. A. Boruff, former county clerk and now Democratic candidate for county clerk, and in fact, all former county clerks serving since the passage of this law in 1901, used the law to lower the tax rate wherever possible.

The clerks who took this action were the late Charles B. Graff, James S. Merrill and C. A. Boruff as well as the present clerk. It should not be assumed that a county clerk is in any way favoring the public by scaling under the Juul law. It is the plain duty of county clerks to use this law whenever tax rates reach a certain figure.

This statement is made at this time as a matter of fairness to Mr. Boruff, who is a candidate for the ofice of county clerk. Mr. Boruff made an excellent record as county clerk and is entitled to the same credit as other county clerks serving since 1901 for any action taken in conformity with the Juul law. (adv.)

Ex-Gov. Richard Yates and Mrs. Ila Emmott of Washington, D. C., will speak at the high school auditorium tonight. A quartet will sing. You are invited.

C. A. BORUFF CALLED AS EXPERT ON TAXES

At a hearing before the county court of Morgan county, held last Monday, C. A. Boruff was called upon to testify as an expert in tax matters.

Objection had been made to the Jacksonville tax rate on the ground that the county clerk had failed to scale the tax levies as provided in the Juul law, in order to bring them within the maximum rate allowed by law. As the attorneys in the case knew that Mr. Boruff was experienced along that line, he was requested to make the proper calculations and submit the same to the court. After hearing Mr. Boruff's evidence, the court reduced the rate 10 cents on each hundred dollars assessed valuation. Of course, only the few objectors received the benefit of the proper rate as found by the court. By not using the legal rate in extending the tax, the tax-payers were burdened with an additional $6,000 in taxes—Murrayville (Ill.) Tribune. (Adv.)

Be sure to hear Ex-Governor Yates, high school auditorium tonight. He will discuss present day issues in an interesting way.

I, T. S. Scott, solemnly and truly declare that no picture I have shown this year has had——the dramatic suspense or vivid reality of the fight in "Tol'able David."
—the true, lovable humanness of this story of a boy who wanted to be a man and got an opportunity of proving himself.
—the sweetness of appeal that is in the mother-love of a mountain-mother for this boy.
—the remarkable characterizations, the grip, the magnetic force which radiates from every reel of this splendid picture.
And I solemnly affirm that in my opinion, "Tol'able David" ranks with the three greatest screen dramas of this year.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR CHILD

Large Company Assembled at Last Rites for Charline Vasconcellos.

The funeral service for little Charline Vasconcellos held at the family home on South Main street Wednesday afternoon was very largely attended. The several weeks' illness of the child and the various circumstances made the occasion one of especial sadness.

Dr. W. E. Spoonts was in charge and in beginning the service told how the little girl as she lay upon her bed during her illness told a neighbor who was sitting near her that she could see a little playmate whose death occurred a year or two since. "I can see her," the little girl said, "and I know that she will be my playmate in heaven." Then she asked, "What is the spirit, for I know that our bodies are not taken to heaven."

The minister went on to say that there was no doubt that this child had a clear and definite vision of the world to come.

Dr. Spoonts took as his text a part of Isaiah 49:21, "I have lost my children and I am desolate." The minister developed certain general thoughts that were particularly applicable to the occasion and included words of comfort for the sorrowing relatives. He quoted these lines:

"Her toys are laid upon the shelf
The clothes are put away,
The little rug is folded up
On which she knelt to pray.

Her empty chair is by the hearth,
As if expecting her
And when I see that vacant chair
My eyes with tears are dim.

I listen, wait and listen
For the voice that never calls,
For the step along the hallway
But the footstep never falls.

But this confidence I have always
That tho I may be late
I know she will not forget me
But be watching at the gate."

Music for the occasion was furnished by Mrs. A. R. Gregory, with Mrs. George Ferreira as accompanist.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful and were cared for by Misses Florence McAvoy, Stella Vasconcellos, Gladys Nunes, Nellie Wood, Maxine Hart and Mrs. Vivian Linn.

Interment was made in Jacksonville cemetery, the bearers being E. G. Saye, Clyde Cook, Russell and Charles Nunes, Melchi Hart and Claude Cook.

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT ACT FACTS GIVEN

Sections With Reference to Payment of Assessments Quoted By City Attorney Bellatti.

Because of the extent of public improvement work in progress in Jacksonville questions are frefrequently asked with reference to assessment provisions. In view of this fact Mayor Crabtree asked City Attorney Bellatti for a written explanation of the matter. Mr. Bellatti wrote as follows:

"There are doubtless many people who do not clearly understand the provisions of the Local Improvement Act as to the time of payment of paving assessments, the time from which interest runs, etc., and possibly the City Treasurer does not have in concise form, the various provisions of the act which he is supposed to comply with. I, therefore, submit the following resume of the Act in regard to the payment of assessments for the benefit of the Treasurer and the property owners generally.

"Section 42 of the Local Improvement Act provides: 'The first installment (of the assessment) shall be due and payable on the second day of January next after the date of the first voucher issued on account of work done, and the second installment one year thereafter and so on annually until after installments are paid; and it is hereby made the duty of the Board of Local Improvements to file in the office of the clerk of the court, in which such assessment was confirmed, a certificate signed by its secretary, of the date of such first voucher and of the amount thereof, within thirty days after the issuance thereof. All installments shall bear interest as hereinafter provided for until paid at the rate of six per centum per annum. Interest on assessments shall begin to run from the date of the first voucher issued on account of work done as aforesaid. The interest on each installment shall be payable as follows: On the second day of January next succeeding the date of the first voucher aforesaid, so certified as aforesaid, the interest accrued up to that time on all unpaid installments shall be due and payable and be collected with the installments and thereafter the interest on all unpaid installments then payable shall be payable anually, and be due and payable at the same time as installments maturing in such year and be collected therewith".

"Section 61 of the Act provides among other things: 'Within thirty days after the filing of the report of the amount and date of the first voucher issued on account of work done, as provided in Section 42 of this Act, as herein amended, the clerk of the court in which such judgment is rendered shall certify the assessment roll and judgment to the officer of such city, village or town authorized to collect such special assessment * * * * that with such assessment roll and judgment, the clerk of such court shall also issue a warrant for the collection of such assessment."

"Section 63 of the Act provides 'the collector receiving such warrant shall immediately give notice thereof by publishing a notice in one or more newspapers in such city, town or village if such newspaper is there, and if there is no such newspaper, then by posting four notices thereof in public places along the line of the proposed improvements" and prescribing a form of notice, which I will furnish the Treasurer if he desires it.

"Section 64 provides 'It shall be the duty of the collector into whose hands the warrants shall come, as far as practicable, to call upon all persons resident within the neighborhood whose name appears upon the assessment roll, or the occupants of the property assessed, and personally, or by written or printed notice left at his or her usual place of abode, inform them of said special assessment and request payment of the same.'

"In view of the foregoing, it is evident that the criticism directed at the charging of interest from the date of the first voucher, where the property owner has had no notice, is not well taken. It is the law and if people understand that it will be applied to everybody and not waived in any case, I do not believe any one will really object.

"Signed,
"WALTER BELLATTI,
"City Attorney."

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

Thin? Run-down? Sure Way to Get Right Weight

Increase Your Red Blood Cells. That's the Sure Way! S. S. S. Builds Blood-Cells; This Means Strength!

Do you know why insurance companies refuse to insure a great many men because they are under weight? Simply because to be under weight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power. Minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus energy, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S. S. S., since 1826, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, plus in their strength. Hollow cheeks fill out. You stop being a gamity-looker. You inspire confidence, your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S. S. S. builds them. Ladies and gentlemen, a pasty, bony face doesn't make you look very important or pretty, does it? Take S. S. S. It contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in three sizes. The larger size bottle is more economical.

S. S. S. makes you feel like yourself again

COULD HARDLY STAND AT TIMES

Hips, Back and Legs would Have That Tired Ache

Everett, Washington.—"For several years I have had trouble with the lowest part of my back and my hips and my legs would ache with that tired ache. I could hardly stand on my feet at times. I was always able to do my work although I did not feel good. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and having heard several praise it I decided to try it. I feel first-rate at the present time. It has done wonders for me and I keep it in the house right along. I always recommend it to others who are sick and ailing."—Mrs. J. M. SIBBERT, 4032 High St., Everett, Washington.

To do any kind of work, or to play for that matter, is next to impossible if you are suffering from some form of female trouble. It may cause your back or your legs to ache, it may make you nervous and irritable. You may be able to keep up and around, but you do not feel good.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for women. It is especially adapted to relieve the cause of the trouble and then these annoying pains, aches and "no good" feelings disappear.

Rev. B. M. Bridges Gives Facts in His Case

It is doubtful if there has ever been a medicine indorsed by so many ministers of the Gospel as has Tanlac. Indeed, there is scarcely a faith, creed or denomination in all the land in which one or more of the clergymen has not publicly expressed their indebtedness to the Premier Preparation for the benefits they have derived from its use.

One of the latest to speak out in this connection is Rev. B. M. Bridges, a widely known and beloved Baptist preacher, residing at Mooresboro, N. C., whose statement follows:

"Tanlac has given me a good appetite, toned up my system and renewed my strength in such a gratifying way that I am glad to recommend it to anyone who is in a rundown condition. For ten years past I have had such a severe case of indigestion that I could not find anything to eat that agreed with me. Finally I became very nervous and could get but very little sleep or rest.

"It seems that I took nearly everything trying to get myself right, but nothing helped me until I ran across Tanlac. My nerves are so much better now that my sleep is sound and refreshing. I enjoy my meals and have also gained weight. I can say from experience that Tanlac is a splendid medicine and tonic, for it has built me up wonderfully."

TO PAVE BETWEEN EAST STATE TRACKS

C. & A. Engineers Here to Make Survey — Road Shows Fine Spirit Toward Jacksonville.

Engineers for the Chicago and Alton railroad are in Jacksonville making the survey for paving work around the station. Some time since the Alton management at the request of Mayor Crabtree agreed to pave between the tracks at the East State street crossing with any material that the city chooses, provided the C. P. & St. L. and the C. B. & Q. will enter into the project. The greater part of the cost will be borne by the C. and A. and there is very little doubt but that the other roads will join in the project.

The C. & A. proposes to pave the space to the south and west of the station, an improvement which will be greatly appreciated by those who drive cars to the station.

The road management has indicated a willingness to pave at some later time the space north of the station extending to a point opposite North street. Such an improvement would give another satisfactory means of approach and egress to the station.

One of the nicest things about the improvement is the attitude of the road, which is indicated in a letter to Mr. Crabtree from H. T. Douglas, Jr., who is the chief engineer for the Alton. The letter is quoted:

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I have your letter of October 27th. Evidently you did not receive my letter of September 29, a copy of which I am sending you. You will observe in this letter that I have stated we would use either concrete or brick as you might prefer and employ your City's specifications which then would enable your contractor to do exactly the same character of work which he has for the City and would avoid any complexity of thought or action.

You bring up a new thought of putting asphalt covering on this pavement. I do not know what answer to make to this thought, largely in the reason that I do not know if the pavement to be adjoined would be asphalt or pavement of other construction. A good asphalt makes a wonderfully good pavement for light services, but around freight houses where heavy trucks back into the buildings or platforms it is not favorably regarded by many for during the hot weather of the summer months the abrupt turns the trucks make sometimes tear up the pavement made soft by the extreme heat of the summer days.

However, we want to do the thing that will be pleasing to you and I have our Assistant Engineer, Mr. Biggs, going to Jacksonville to confer with you so there will not be any necessity to further trespass upon your indulgence. Obviously the thing we are most anxious about is the concurrence between the C. P. & St. L. or the Burlington in this work. If the Alton awards the contract for this pavement we want to be very sure that the C. P. & St. L or the Burlington would be ready to pay their part of the cost of this work.

The maps showing the areas, desired by you, Mr. Biggs will leave with you.

Yours truly,
H. T. DOUGLAS, JR.
Chief Engineer

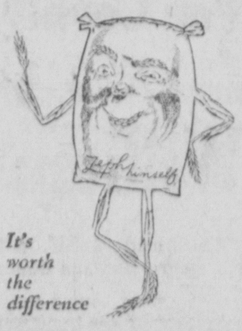
You can taste the difference in ZEPHYR bakings

SOMEHOW the snowy-white cake seems sweeter and richer the very first time you bake with Zephyr flour. Rolls, too, have a new fluffy lightness and pie crusts are tender and wholesome. The secret's in the milling of the choice Kansas wheat, so full of healthful nourishment. Zephyr is always uniform in quality, each sack just like the last. That's worth remembering when you compare ordinary flour with Zephyr.



It's worth the difference

Will you give 15 minutes this week for a lifetime of foot comfort?

Probably not one person in ten realizes that there is anything particularly wrong with his feet—and yet army statistics have conclusively shown that at least seven people out of every ten are suffering from some form of foot trouble.

As you study the chart at the top of the page, you will note, perhaps, certain symptoms which have occurred at some time with you.

This week—from now until the close of business next Saturday—is Dr. Scholl's Demonstration Week. During this week an opportunity is offered to you to find out, definitely, positively, the condition of your feet and the corrective methods, if needed, which will bring relief.

If your feet tire easily, if they ache and burn and perspire, if a moderate amount of walking seems to bring excessive fatigue, if you have corns or callouses or bunions, weak arches, "weak foot" or flat foot, or pains in legs and hips that are rheumatic-like in their intensity, you owe it to yourself to find out the real cause of these conditions.

This week, also, we will be glad to present you with the items listed in the coupon below, as long as our supply lasts.

SPECIAL COUPON—FREE!

This coupon will entitle the holder, when signed and presented at our store, to:

1. Dr. Scholl's Corrective Foot Exercise Chart
2. Booklet, "Treatment and Care of the Feet"
3. One sample of Dr. Scholl's Zino-pads and, if desired by the undersigned, a complete foot and shoe trouble analysis and demonstration.

STATE SCHOOLS IN NEW DIVISION

Institutions for Deaf and Blind Here Given Separate Classification In Department of Welfare.

There is much more than local interest in order issued yesterday by Judge C. H. Jenkins, director of the department of public welfare of Illinois, assigning the Illinois School for the Deaf and the the Illinois School for the Blind to the division in the department of public welfare known as the educational division.

Heretofore the two local schools have been classed along with the charitable institutions of the state. Col. O. C. Smith and R. W. Woolston, managing officers of the two schools, have worked earnestly to bring about this new order. The reasons were set before Judge Jenkins and his associates at various times and the arguments of the local managing officers finally won the desired approval.

The School for the Deaf and the School for the Blind are just as the names indicate, educational institutions, and there were various good reasons for making the change. There will be various advantages and certain forward steps can be taken for the schools which could not properly apply to the charitabe institutions of the state.

Col. Smith and Mr. Woolston have been insistent that the best interests of the schools would be subserved by the establishment of the new division and they believe that further development of the schools will afford abundant proof of the correctness of their position.

The general order relating to the establishment of the new division to all institutions and divisions of the state is in the following language:

Effective November 1, 1922, a. m.

The following order is published for the information of all concerned:

1. A new Division in the Department of Public Welfare is hereby created to be known as the Educational Division, and the State institutions assigned to this Division are:

The Illinois School for the Deaf, at Jacksonvile, and
The Illinois School for the Blind, at Jacksonville.

2. All letterheads and other printing shall designate these institutions as belonging to the Educational Division. In the making of reports and any other communications, the children are to be designated as pupils instead of inmates, and everything possible will be done to give publicity to the fact that these schools are not charitable institutions.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA IN BRILLIANT CONCERTS

Famous Organization Appears Under Direction of Fritz Reiner—Large Audience Present.

Two of the finest concerts ever presented in Jacksonville were given Wednesday by the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra under the leadership of Fritz Reiner. The afternoon concert was exceptionally brilliant, being composed of numbers in which fine musical structure is combined with gripping emotional mood and melody, making for popularity in the finest sense. The attendance at this concert was not as good as at the evening concert, but the quality of work of the organization was not affected. Whole hearted applause greeted every effort of the musicians.

In the evening Marjorie Squires contralto, sang two numbers, the arias from "Jeanne d'Arc" and from "Samson and Delilah." She was given an ovation by the audience. Her voice while not of the finest timbre, was youthful, robust and rich in lower tines especially. Her non-temperamental stage-presence and the wholesome Americanism of her type, together with what may truthfully be termed a good interpretation of the airs, took the hearts of the audience.

In the afternoon Emil Heerman, concert master, played the solo air of Handel's Largo with a deep and rich violin tone seldom heard even in Symphonie organization. A hypercritical person might have thought his slurring a bit too inevitable.

Mr. Reiner is perhaps the most masterful conductor who has appeared in Jacksonville within recent years. This statement is a bold one, but will receive support from many musical people here. Other conductors have done wonderful things here with individual numbers, but Reiner gave a virile reading to every number which was a revelation. Especially was this true of the Berlioz Hungarian march the Haensel and Gretel and Valkyre numbers and the Dukas "sorcerer's Apprentice,' all modern numbbers, which demand a masterful sense of balance to keep the "effects" from swamping the theme. More than the usual in contracts and more than usual in unity was the paradox solved by Reiner's interpretation.

This leader's style of conducting was varied enough to suit the most exacting. His unassuming quietness in directing the less abandoned musical expressions, whether the poignant calm of the Largo or the powerful dignity of Beethoven, was in excellent taste. The opposite extreme was manifest in the modernist selections, and to the writer the end not only justified the means, but was not in the least thwarted by attention devoted to the technique of the conductor.

After the Hungarian march the Andante Cantabile was played by the strings almost without direction, and they played as a unit, so well has their personnel been selected and trained. Only in the Largo, effective as it was, was there the slightest suggestion that the bass-clef instruments were following the trebles.

The programs afternoon and evening, were given in accordance with advance notices.

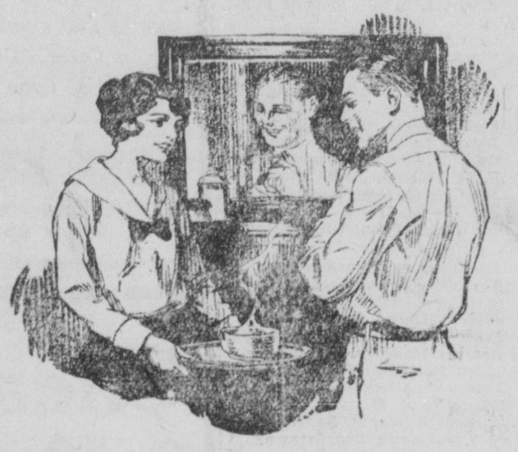
Instant Quaker Oats

Cooks to perfection in 3 to 5 minutes



Oats Are Ready

Before the man is dressed

There is now an Instant Quaker Oats, perfected by our experts. It cooks in from 3 to 5 minutes—far quicker than any other oats you can buy. And it cooks to perfection.

If that means anything to you, it's another reason for always getting Quaker Oats.

The same exquisite flavor

Quaker Oats are world-famed for their flavor. Millions of oat lovers send over seas to get them. In every country this is the favorite brand.

They are flaked from queen grains only—just the rich, plump, flavory oats. All flavorless grains are discarded. A bushel of choice oats yields but ten pounds of these delicious flakes.

Instant Quaker employs those same queen grains. But the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and are partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small, thin flakes cook quickly.

Now you have your choice at equal price. Regular Quaker with its matchless flavor. Instant Quaker with that same flavor, plus five-minute cooking.

But you get neither of those qualities unless you insist on the Quaker brand.

Let the People Decide

Defenders of the Volstead Prohibition law arbitrarily claim that the law has the endorsement of 80% of the voters of Illinois.

Those who are opposed to the law dispute that contention. They charge that in passing the Volstead act the Congress failed to correctly gauge public sentiment.

The voters of Illinois will decide this controversy through the ballot on Tuesday—November 7th.

Professional drys are attempting to prevent a general expression on the issue. Just how a popular endorsement of the Volstead law could prove harmful to the cause of prohibition is not explained.

The effort to discourage such a vote reflects weakness—not strength. It must be apparent that the agents of the Anti-Saloon League fear the result and that they are preparing an alibi.

It is important that public sentiment should officially be recorded on this question, for after all, no law can be stronger than the sentiment in its favor.

The prohibition problem has reached a stage where truth and sound thinking should prevail.

If the people want the law—it should be respected and honestly enforced. If the people do not want the law—it cannot be enforced and therefore it should be modified or repealed.

Mother To-Be!

Do You Realize this Fact?

AN eminent physician has shown why there is so much useless suffering on the part of many expectant mothers, for months before baby comes, as well as when baby actually arrives. This same great doctor found the way to avoid much of this suffering. Mother, your baby's nerves, its whole structure should be free from any influence caused by your months of useless misery and pain. You yourself can be free from much of it. Here is a little message to all expectant mothers:

Mrs. Ida Milton, 108 N. Tremont St., Kansas, Ill., says: "I am forced to say something in regard to your wonderful 'Mother's Friend.' Just one application gave me such relief I could hardly realize I was in pregnancy. Before I used it I was suffering with pains all over, and today, I am able to do my house-work with all ease and without pain."

"Mother's Friend" is applied externally, and enables the muscles, nerves and tissues to relax and readjust themselves with the growing changes during pregnancy, and at child-birth. It should be used for some time before baby comes—the sooner the better.

"Mother's Friend" contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. It is safe. For three generations "Mother's Friend" has relieved expectant mothers of much useless suffering. Mother! you must avoid mere greases and useless substitutes. Begin using "Mother's Friend" today. It is sold at drug stores—everywhere.

ILLINI EXPECTS HARD BATTLE WITH PURPLE

Zuppke Figures that Northwestern Will Give His Squad Hard Battle Next Saturday.

URBANA, Ill., Nov. 1.—Dads, Rotarians and football lovers in general who will journey to Illinois field Saturday for the Northwestern-Illinois game are likely to see one of the prettiest battles of the year. That the Illini and Purple will fight on even terms and that the game will be full of sensations and thrills is the belief in the state camp.

Northwestern, once regarded as merely a 'chopping block" to be used by the stronger Big Ten teams for practice, seems to be a different kind of team this year. Coach Glenn Thistlewaite, who came from Oak Park just as Bob Zuppke came way back in 1913, has injected a new kind of spirit up on the North Shore. The Purple has held the strong Chicago team to a 14-7 score and has tied Minnesota, 7-7-. Now the Gophers licked Ohio 9-0 last Saturday. That makes the Purple look pretty strong.

All this has made the western football world sit up and take notice. It has also made Bob Zuppke go to work like a beaver on Illinois field. The little coach realizes that it is going to take all his resources to rout the invaders.

Zuppke, deprived of his regular quarterback, Rune Clark, for the moment at least, is feverishly seeking a man to guide the Illini. Bill Robison is being tried. He had quarterback experience on Carlinville high school and if he makes good in practice this week he will steer the Orange and Blue on Saturday. Chris Woodward will probably be out of the game because of an injury received at Michigan. The Ottawa lad will be replaced by Sam Hill of Champaign. Otherwise the Illini will not be changed. But the regulars are getting an intensive training to rectify the errors that were so fatal at Ann Arbor.

SPORT OF ALL SORT

Miller Huggins by again accepting the management of the New York Americans, proves that he is a gultton for punishment.

Billy Miskes's comeback certainly was nothing over which Jack Dempsey could enthuse. Looks like an idle winter for the champion.

Despite the walloping the Yankees received from the Giants, Ty Cobb insists the Yankees are the greatest team in either major league. Wonder if Huggins believes it.

Looks very much as if Catcher Schmidt of the Pittsburg Nationals had a press agent. It's a quiet day when he doesn't break into print.

The slogan in the west relative to Iowa by all the "Big Ten" teams is "Beat the team that beat Yale." Coach Howard Jones is in for a busy fall.

Cy Young and Amos Rusie, star pitchers of other days, insist there is one sure way to stop home-run hitting, use high balls. Present day pitchers ask where are you going to get 'em.

Champions who fade seldom come back, but Willie Hoppe looks as if he might be the exception. Hoppe is training faithfully for the coming billiard tournament and feels confident he will regain the title he held so long.

Rogers Hornsby, in explaining how he supplanted Babe Ruth as the home-run king of the majors, very modestly says: "Either the ball is livelier, the fences shorter or the pitchers poorer. I swung at the ball in the same old way, but when I hit it, it sure went much farther."

The team of major league players now on way to the orient will play the first game with Keio University at Tokio on Nov. 4. The closing game of the trip will be at Manilla on Dec. 30.

The Wallace Orchards are now offering Gano and Ben Davis apples on the trees to those who want them at from $1 to $3 per tree. Trees will run from 5 to 15 bushels to the tree. Open Sundays. Plenty of good sweet cider. Bring your own container. WALLACE ORCHARD CO. Chapin, Ill.

Notes from the Big Ten Camps

ILLINOIS

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 1.—Coach Zuppke of Illinois with his new string of players getting set for the tilt with Northwestern next Saturday pushed his outfit thru mud today in hot scrimmages. Pat Stoik and Bill Robinson were at the halevs, Royal and Kill changing at full and Stue Couchie and George Dawson calling signals. The 'varsity line riped open the freshmen forward wall for long gains.

IOWA

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Nov. 1.—Coach Howard Jones barred the gates to Iowa Field again tonight in starting active preparations for the Minnesota game here "Armistice Day."

During the two hour drill he devoted his entire attention to the linemen with the back field players in charge of Major Hill. The line worked on Gophers' plays scrimmaging against the third string. The backs continued to work on passes. Up to this evening Coach Jones had received no invitation from Yale authorities asking Iowa to play at New Haven again next year he announced.

WISCONSIN

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 1.—The University of Wisconsin football squad today ran thru its final practice before engaging Minnesota at Minneapolis next Saturday. Altho the field was wet and slippery, the 'varsity eleven broke up numerous Minnesota plays offered by the freshmen team. Several backfield men on the Badger aggregation are on the hospital list and are not expected to participate in the game.

NORTHWESTERN

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Despite a drizzling rain and a wet field the 'varsity and freshmen football squads at Northwestern university continued their scrimmage today. The freshmen were in possession of the pigskin most of the time giving the regulars practice in breaking up forward pass plays. The team is looking forward optimistically toword its contest with Illinois Saturday. More than 1,500 Northwestern students are expected to accompany the team to Urbana.

MICHIGAN LOOMS BIG AS CONTENDER

Coach Yost's Team Will Make Trouble for Other Teams of the Western Conference.

By Billy Evans

Michigan is certain to be a troublemaker in western football this year.

Coach Yost has a team with great possibilities. It has plenty of power, drive and fight.

In the game with Ohio State Michigan proved that it is well coached in the art of modern football.

For several years many of the western experts have insisted that Michigan teams were not making the most of their possibilities, due to the fact that too much old-style football was used.

It has been argued that Michigan for several years has been lacking in variety of play and deceptiveness of attack. Michigan, according to the experts, was playing a rather stereotyped game that could be easily diagnosed after a period or so.

Team Is Well Coached.

The Michigan team that lined up against Ohio State certainly refuted any and all such arguments. While Michigan didn't open up to any great extent against State I feel that it was due to the fact that Michigan always held the upper hand and was forcing State to do the leading, as they say in boxing circles.

Michigan having gained the lead, forced State to press its game and was quick to take advantage of every slip in State's play. In other words, Michigan played a wideawake game, never failing to follow the ball and often profiting thereby.

Yost's pupils showed they were well coached in the fundamentals of the game. The rather green and inexperienced line charged low and hard. The secondary defense of Michigan was a thing of beauty. Seldom have I ever seen better work on the part of a team's secondary defense.

Knowing that State would attempt to bewilder Michigan when Wilce's charges opened up their game, Yost had his team prepared for such a happening. After Michigan forged to the front Workman started to spray forward passes all over the gridiron.

Michigan soon showed that it was prepared to cope with the forward passe of State. The fleet Maize and Blue backs always covered their mon. On almost every play one or more Michigan forwards would sift thru and force Workman to hurry his passes.

Never have I seen Workman quite so inaccurate, a majority of his passes being grounded without a State player even getting close to the ball However, no fault can be found with Workman on this feature of play, rather credit is due the Michigan forwards for their activities in forcing to hurry his passes.

In an attempt to win State uncovered its bag of tricks. In the last two periods Workman opened up everything. Michigan, in winning, disclosed but little of its strategy. One of the very few trick plays used by Yost's team resulted in a touchdown. It was a beautifully executed delayed double pass.

Uteritz Stars at Quarter

Quarterback Uteritz of Michigan who ran his team in brainy fashion, had been using Fulback Cappon a great deal in crashing off tackle. Such a play seemed to be on tap when the delayed pass was pulled. iWth Uteritz handling the ball. Cappon dashed past him and into the left side of State's line. Most of the State team was pulled over to stop the plunge of Cappon, who had been a consistent gainer.

While State was watching Cappon, Uteritz tossed the ball to Roby, who in turn slipped it to Kipke. From start to finish the play was well executed, the deception perfect. It was an easy matter for Kipke to run 25 yards for a touchdown, only one State runner, Isabel, being close.

Michigan's game with Ohio State proved that the Ann Arbor eleven has great possibilities. It also proved that Fielding Yost and his assistant George Little, are not going to use any antiquated stuff in 192.

The power of the Michigan eleven was further emphasized in the game with Illinois, which Yost's team won by the decisive score of 24 to 0.

Illinois had surprised the football world by holding Iowa, the conqueror of Yale, to an 8 to 7 score. It looked as if Michigan was in for a lot of trouble.

Yet minus Kipke, the star of the Michigan backfield, Illinois was soundly trounced.

On Estimate Based On "Value Received"

When you need an estimate on your electric wiring requirements for house, office, store or factory do you shop around for the cheapest price irrespective of quality, service or reputation?

Or do you send at once for a reputable contractor who, by long experience, knows his business, gives reliable advice and service, keeps his promises and guarantees his work? An estimate based on "value received" may be a little higher but it is the one you should accept.

Market Report
By The Associated Press

STOCK MARKET PRICES CONTINUE TO DECLINE

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Prices in today's stock market continued to decline but there were indications that the current reaction was nearing an end. Buying on the belief that the liquidation had run its course imparted strength to a number of shares at the opening but a heavy attack was launched against steel and Mexican Oil shares which again unsettled the list. The raid aagainst steels was based on the comparatively small earnings of the United States Steel corporation for September which totaled only $7,727,721 as against $11,324,059 the month before.

United States Steel common to 103 1-3 a new on the movement but later rallied a point for a net loss of ⅝ under last night's close.

Acute weakness of Pierce Arrow preferred had an unsettling effect on other motor shares in early dealings but good buying power developed in Studebaker and Chandler which carried those stocks 1@2 points respectively above last night's final figures.

Trading in rails was sluggish.

Total sales were 1,126,000 shares.

Call money opened at 5 per cent and then jumped to six where it closed.

Trading in foreign exchange was quite because of the All-Saints holiday observed aboard. Sterling held steady around $4.45½ and the continental rates were firm.

U. S. Government securities moved within much narrower limits altho the main trend was downward the Second 4¼s sustaining the largest net loss ten cents on $100.

Total bond sales (par value) were $14,106,000.

ACTIVE DEALING IN WHEAT MARKET

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Assertions that the winter wheat acreage of 1922 would show a reduction of 10 per cent compared with last year had much to do with bringing about more active dealings and decidedly higher prices in the wheat market today. Closing quotations were unsettled at net gains of 1½c to 2¾c with December $1.16½ to $1.16⅝ and May $1.14 to $1.14½. Corn finished 1⅞@1½c to 2c up, oats at b to ⅞c advance and provisions varying from 5c decline to a rise of 2c.

Los of 10 per cent in winter wheat territory would mean 4,500,000 acres and according to the experts responsible for the estimate the outlook for the winter crop is the poorest for some years both as regards acreage and conditions.

Corn and oats developed independent firmness owing to estimates that the total available supplies of corn for the season would be 408,000,000 bushels less than was the case last year.

Provisions were easier in line with lower lard prices at Liverpool and with liberal holding receipts here.

Baptist Calling Campaign

Wednesday opened the red and blue contest among the resident members of the First Baptist church in what is known as the November calling campaign. Over two hundred and forty members on each side will be asked to make a total of over one thousand house calls in the interest of the services of the church. This will include invitations which must be verbal, to the meetings of the church, the Sunday school, B. Y. P. U. and other departments as the opportunity presents iself. In this campaign resident members of the church are considered those living within a radins of five miles of the church. Miss Elizabeth Long is chairman of the Blue side or the letters from L to Z, while Mrs. E. O. Hess is overseeing the Red side or the leters from A to K. On next Sunday morning at 10:45, the first registration will be made on a bulletin board in the church auditorium. Each house call counts one point, while a twenty-five cent subscription to the Illinois Baptist Bulletin adds an additional five points to the side securing it. At the annual church meeting on Wednesday, January 3rd, 1922, the losing side will provide for a church social at which some interesting results of the calling campaign will be taoulated.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

Today will be Y. W. C. A. day at the Waman's college. The chapel services in the morning will be especially devoted to the interest of the Y. W. C. A. and Miss Caroline Dow, who formerly national head of the Y. W. C. A. and who has recently returned from a trip around the world will speak to the students on the work of the Y. W. One day during each college year is devoted to the interests of the Y. W. and today all girls who are not already members of the organization will be urged to join. Miss Florence Weber is the president of the Y. W. C. A.

WHY FARMERS SHOULD VOTE FOR GUY SHAW

Following extract from letter written by Mr. Gray Silver, Washington Representative of the Legislative Department of the American Farm Bureau Federation shows that Guy L. Shaw has been alive to the interests of the farmers. Mr. Silver says "desire to say that your record is good and we count you among the best friends of agriculture. This card as you will notice shows your batting average in favor of agriculture to be practically 100 per cent." Mr. Shaw having farmed all his life is naturally in sympathy with any movement that will better the conditions of the farmers.

OIL ACTIVITY NEAR WHITE HALL GROWS

Crucible Refining Co., Has Leases on 12,000 Acres In Greene and Scott Counties — Republican Rally Held—Other News Notes.

White Hall, Nov. 1.—Activity in the matter of lease taking and boring for oil have been in progress during the present year in the vicinity of White Hall, and matters are just now taking an interesting turn with the return of Charles E. Dice from the Kentucky oil field and his taking charge of drilling operations on the E. C. Adams farm in Scott county, just across the north line of Greene county, west of Glasgow. Mr. Dice had had an outfit at work in the vicinity of White Hall for several months, in charge of Jule Hubbard but his latest contract is with the Crucible Refining Co., which has leases on 12,000 acres and trying to take over more, and he is to go down 1,500 feet unless oil is struck at a lesser depth.

A report from there today says that a depth of 633 feet has been reached, and that there was a showing of oil of 325 feet. This is the first hole to be put down by the Crucible people, and they claim they will sink several. Another outfit on the way to this field will be capable of going down 2,500 feet. Mr. Dice says it is represented as capable of going down 5,000 feet, but he prefers to cut that figure in half.

The leased land extends over the northwest corner of Greene and the southwest corner of Scott counties. State geologists have for years claimed that there is oil in these particular sections of Greene and Scott counties.

Among the products put out by the Crucible refineries is a jelly grease that will stand erzo weather without thickening and more interesting is that this grease will stand sufficient heat to ignite a building, or about 350 degrees. The value of this grease in railroad operations is that it can be poured into a hot box, and it will not only lubricate the journal, but will cool the box as the train proceeds. The inventor demonstrated this to best advantage when he was once riding on a passenger train with a sample of his product. The train was experiencing delay in cooling a hot box, and he asked permision to demonstrate, which was granted. He oiled the box and told the trainmen to go right along. When the train reached its terminal the box was cool.

Should oil be found in paying quality a refinery will be erected at a cost of a million aend a half to two millions of dollars at some convenient shipping point nearby, and a move in that direction ought to take White Hall into consideration.

Mr. Dice is an experienced oil man, and he has contracts in Kentucky that he is anxious to give his attention just as soon as he can get away. He says he has a great desire to get to bore at a point near White Hall, and that point is the base of the Bradshaw mound, which has always looked good to him. Mr. and Mrs. Dice are now residing at the home of her father, C. Linker, and they will continue ot reside here.

First Political Rally.

The frist and probably the only political rally at White Hall during the present congressional campaign was held on Main street for about an hour Monday afternoon, commencing at 1:30. It was Republican in charatcer, and was addressed by Roscoe A. Heavlin of Marion, Indiana, who is covering the twentieth congressional district under direction of the national Republican congressional campaign committee. He spoke mainly on the tariff as a principle of protection of American industry in contrast with our experience with low tariff or free trade laws.

Congressman Guy L. Shaw spoke mainly on the steps that have been taken in the matter of protection of the Illinois valley from the pollution of the Chicago drainage canal by the increased flow thru that canal from Lake Michigan, and the flood protective measures that are due and have for years been due localities such as Beardstown. His gentlemanly prsentation of his claims for re-election were in wide contrast to the efforts of Henry T. Rainey to regain his seat in congress.

Justice E. L. Wendel presided, and he stated that Mr. Rainey had had lowered himself by the character of the campaign he is conducting. The crowd was rounded up by Walter Shaw Dilday, member of the Canadian club of Chicago, in bag pipe selections. The party came direct from Beardstown, and went from here to Roodhouse and Jacksonville, with the steering wheel in the hands of H. W. Patterson of Beardstown. The speakers showed that in eighteen months Mr. Shaw has acomplished as much legislation as a new member of congress as has Mr. Rainey in his eighteen years of service. Mr. Shaw stated that he could effectually answer every personal charge made by Mr. Rainey upon him, but that he doubted the wisdom of such a course.

Funeral of Mr. Shores.

The death of Gideon H. Shores, whose funeral was held at eleven o'clock Tuesday in the Baptist church at Wrights, removes one of the old residents of that part of Greene county. He came from Wilson county, Tennessee, in an early day, and has since resided in the vicinity of Rockbridge and Greenfield, being born January 1st, 1843. In 1871 he and Miss Eliza J. Talkington were married, she dying in 1905. Of their eleven children, the survivors are Charles, Arkansas City, Kansas; Olive, wife of Lewis Doyal, one mile west of Wrights and Virgil, Salem, Mo. Since the death of his wife he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Doyal.

He was ill only a few days before his death, and had taken no nourishment for two or three days, the end coming suddenly at 12:30 p. m., Sunday, just after the members of the family had completed the noon meal, in which he did not participate. He was a man of strict religious scruples, member of the Baptist church, and the funeral discourse was delivered by Rev. William Gaither of Medora. The burial was in the Witt cemetery, near Rockbridge.
